Emergency Rule 5PER20-2 Appeals.

SPECIFIC REASONS FOR FINDING AN IMMEDIATE DANGER TO THE PUBLIC, HEALTH, SAFETY OR WELFARE:

Due to the risk posed by the COVID-19 outbreak to the entire state of Florida, the resulting severe public health emergency declared by the Governor of the State of Florida, and the recommendations of the United States Centers for Disease Control and the Florida Department of Health to implement social distancing measures for approximately 30 days, the Department has determined there is an immediate danger to the public health, safety, and welfare of individuals seeking to exercise their right to due process within the deadlines provided under Rule 5PER1.002, F.A.C. This emergency rule will allow Appellants additional time to respond to agency action and participate in hearings while adhering to recommended social distancing measures, thus protecting the public welfare.

REASONS FOR CONCLUDING THAT THE PROCEDURE USED IS FAIR UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES:

The deadlines provided in the emergency rule allow Appellants to adhere to social distancing recommendations by giving them more time to coordinate their response to agency action and allowing additional time to conduct hearings at a later date either by video conference or in person when social distancing recommendations are lifted.
